FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Mesquite Police Department to Host the 19th Annual Grad Night Party for the VVHS Senior Class

Mesquite, NV - The Virgin Valley High School senior class of 2024 will set out on new adventures in life and begin many wonderful and fulfilling careers. The Mesquite Police Department would like to make sure their journey in life after graduation begins in a safe and exciting way.

The Mesquite Police Department wants to provide the graduating class a fun filled night and a safe location to spend their time after graduation ceremonies. The evening will consist of entertainment, food and many activities designed for the graduates.

Members of the Virgin Valley High School senior class parent committee along with Mesquite Police Officers will be contacting local Mesquite businesses to ask for donations, which will fund the event's many activities and safe environment. Private donations from the public are also greatly appreciated. This entire event is funded by donations and cannot take place without the generous help of our community.

For those who would like to donate to Grad Night, please contact School Resource Officer Perry at 702-780-9973, jperry@mesquitenv.gov or VVHS senior class parent committee chairpersons Mindy Hughes at 702-265-4275 or Lara McOmie at 971-645-2393. Donations can be made at the Mesquite Police Department, located at 695 Mayan Circle. Please make checks payable to the Mesquite Police Department.
