GREG MANTHEI NAMED CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER AT MESQUITE GAMING

Mesquite, NV – (August 26, 2024) – Mesquite Gaming announced today the hire of Greg Manthei as Chief Financial Officer. He brings over 28 years of experience in hospitality and gaming corporate finance to CasaBlanca Resort & Casino and Virgin River Hotel & Casino – Mesquite Gaming’s properties located in Mesquite, NV.

“I’m excited to see how Greg’s wealth of experience in the finance industry brings added value to the success of our organization,” said Justin Moore, CEO, Mesquite Gaming. “We will be relying on him to contribute meaningfully to achieving our long-term financial goals.”

Manthei started his career with Dolce Hotels and Resorts, rising from accountant to corporate assistant controller. During that time, he designed a standard budget/labor management system then implemented it at each Dolce hotel in North America. Greg joined Ameristar Casinos in 2004 where he rose to Director of Corporate Planning and Analysis in Las Vegas and helped guide that company through its merger with Pinnacle Gaming in 2013. Afterwards, he became their corporate Director of Capital Assets and was quickly promoted again to VP of Shared Services and Accounting.

In 2016, Manthei was promoted to VP of Finance and Administration at L'Auberge Lake Charles. Greg retained this role when Penn Entertainment acquired Pinnacle Entertainment in 2018, overseeing multiple operational departments through various hurricane closures and re-openings. Since May 2022, Greg has been the Regional CFO and VP of Finance for Penn Entertainment in Central PA.
